6. Proof of cohabitation to be provided

You must provide us with proof of shared residence from different sources in order to confirm your status as de facto (common law) spouse for the required period. (If necessary, see the Information section at the top of the form to determine the required period.)

To prove three years of conjugal relationship, please provide proof of cohabitation for each of the following periods:

- the month in which the death occurred;
- one year prior to the death (approximately);
- two years prior to the death (approximately);
- the 36th month prior to the death.

To prove one year of conjugal relationship, please provide proof of cohabitation for each of the following periods:

- the month in which the death occurred;
- the 12th month prior to the death.

The documents must show the following information:

- the name of one or both spouses;
If the documents do not show the names of both spouses, you must provide a document for each spouse, including information that is consistent with the information on the document of the other spouse.
- residential address;
- the date on which the document was issued.
The issue date of the document must correspond to the period for which proof is required.

The following documents are examples of acceptable proof: income tax slips (T4, RL-1 slip, RL-2 slip), notice of assessment, tax notice, insurance contract, telephone bill or invoice, hydro bill or invoice, etc.

If the period of cohabitation is interrupted due to illness of one of the spouses, you must provide proof justifying the interruption of cohabitation for health reasons. The document must be signed by the attending physician, a caregiver or a person representing the management of a healthcare facility who can testify thereto.
